ONE DAY BASIC TRAINING PROGRAMME ON

HUMAN RIGHTS AWARENESS AND EDUCATION

BREIF REPORT OF THE TRAINING PROGRAMME

National Human Rights Commission one day basic training was organized by S.S.Arts College & T.P.Science Institute, Sankeshwar on 02/12/2023 on the topic Human Rights Awareness and Education Programme as per commissions and directions.

Prof.M.Vishwanath, Registrar Raichur University Raichur inaugurated the program. In his inaugural address he highlighted the issues and problems faced by people specially the weaker sections of the society during world wars and colonial period. He enlightened the audience with appropriate examples, how the people were discriminated and exploited. He called upon the students to have the proper knowledge of human rights, which will help them not only to build their career, but also the needy. He said that every human being possess these rights irrespective of his castes, religion, nationality or anything like. He explained how these rights have helped the human beings to enjoy their freedom and lead to respectful and dignified life. He said that, the incorporation of these rights has given ample opportunity to the people moral and materiel upliftment of the mankind. These rights help the individuals for the all round development of the personality. At the end he requested the students to make best use of the day's proceedings and gain essential knowledge.

Shri.R.B.Patil our governing council Chairman, Advocate presided over the function. He called upon the students not only attending is important, but learning new and challenging aspects from resource persons, who have come from different places. The inaugural function began with prayer song by students. Organizing Secretary Prof. B.G.Patil welcomed the gathering and explained the need of such programs. Prof. K.M.Marathe offered vote of thanks. Miss.Shweta Inamdar, B.Sc final Year Student Compared the program.

Technical Session- I : HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF HUMAN RIGHTS

The first technical session was on "HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF HUMAN RIGHTS" Dr. B R Patil Assistant Prof., Government First Grade College Dharwad, was the resource person. Dr. S I Madiwalappagol, Principal, L K Khot College Sankeshwar, presided.

In her lecture, Dr. B R Patil, explained the meaning, philosophy and history of human rights in simple and lucid language. The history of Human Rights is to be traced in Babylonian laws. Lord Basaveshwar, the greatest social reformer has given highest importance to human dignity and equality. The Magna Charta of 1215, The English Bill of Rights of 1689, US declaration, The French Declaration of 1789, The UN Charter of 1945 and finally the University Declaration of Human Rights 1948 are the historical facts she quoted. She said the basic philosophy of Human Rights is to recognize all the human beings as human beings, respect everyone, treat everyone properly, protect them from discrimination, and free them from slavery and exploitation. These rights have ensured human equality, on account of that we from rural background are getting the best education and respect. Dr. V. D. Naganuri welcomed the gathering, Prof. D. T. Sogalad offered vote of thanks and Miss. Sweta Muthnal of B. Sc anchored the session.

Technical Session – II : Human Rights Institutions in India

The second session was on the concept "Human Rights Institutions in India". Dr. V. R. Betagar Associate Professor, Goodnews College, Kalagatagi was the resource person. Professor M. M. Patil of S. M. Bhandari Arts, R. R. Bhandari Commerce and S. K. Rathi Science College, Guledgud was the chairperson. In his lecture the resource person pointed out that NHRC was constituted under the protection of Human Rights Act 1994. It was constituted for the promotion and protection of human rights in India. He explained in detail the organization, powers and functions of NHRC and SHRC's. Along with these institutions, he addressed the students on similar institutions which are working in the domain, such as National Commission for Women, National Commission for Minorities, National Commission for Youth, SC, ST and the like. He called upon the students to approach Human Rights Commission whenever they feel that the rights of their nearest and dearest are in danger by just writing a post card. The chair person of the session highlighted the role of these commissions in promoting and protecting Human Rights in India. Prof. Manuti Mang welcomed the gathering. Dr. M. V. Hiremath offered thanks and Miss. Kirti Kamate of B. Sc compared the session.

Technical Session - III : Rights of Vulnerable Groups.

Third technical session began after lunch. Dr. Praveen Patil, Principal Shahaji Law College, Kolhapur was the resource person. In his address, he spoke about various vulnerable groups such as disabled persons, aged persons, migrant workers, refugees, third gender persons, women, children etc. he called upon the audience to protect these people from exploitation. He said that these are the groups which become easy prey for the exploiting class. The UDHR as well as the Indian Constitution has made various provisions to protect these groups. Dr. V. B. Patil, Associate professor of S. K. Arts College Babaleshwara in his presidential remarks urged the students to take care of these sensitive groups. Dr. P. V. Gadavi welcomed the gathering. Dr. V. A. Edalli offered vote of thanks and Miss. Sweta Mugali of B. Sc anchored the session.
